ABITEC Corporation and DKSH Announce Expansion of Lipid Distribution Agreement

US ingredients supplier ABITEC Corporation signs amended agreement with DKSH to distribute their specialty lipids into new markets and regions across Europe.

ABITEC Corporation, a global manufacturer of specialty lipids, has expanded their multi-year agreement with distribution partner DKSH to include the Food and Beverage market sectors with an extended focus on nutritional supplements across more than 15 countries in the European region. DKSH, a globally acting partner who offers marketing and development to manufacturers of raw materials up to finished products will continue to exclusively distribute ABITEC's lipid-based excipients and nutritional supplements in Thailand, Spain and Portugal, while now extending their representation into new markets and regions. The agreement strengthens an already existing relationship between the two companies and aims to help grow and expand their presence in these emerging markets. DKSH will expand their marketing of ABITEC products for Food, Beverage, and Nutritional Supplements to Denmark, Sweden, Norway, Iceland, Finland, Estonia, Latvia, Lithuania, The United Kingdom, Ireland, The Netherlands, Belgium, Luxemburg, France, Germany, Austria and Switzerland.

Damon Dalrymple, Managing Director Europe and Asia, ABITEC, states: "ABITEC's relationship with DKSH has continued to evolve over the years, and since formalizing our partnership in 2018 it has been a successful collaboration in the pharmaceutical space and in nutritional supplements. This positive experience and results have only further justified our strategic approach to continue our growth in new emerging markets. DKSH has extensive knowledge and insight into these chosen markets and possesses a top-notch logistic infrastructure that will allow ABITEC a strategic advantage in delivering ingredient solutions globally. Together, ABITEC and DKSH will have the opportunity to continue to expand their presence in new markets and serve their customers with high-quality products and technical expertise."

Cesar Saez, Vice President, Global Food & Beverage Ingredients, Performance Materials, DKSH, added: "We are very pleased to build on our successful partnership with ABITEC by introducing their leading specialty lipids to our broad customer base of manufacturing companies in Europe."

ABITEC's trademarked specialty lipids include Capmul, Captex, Caprol, Acconon, Sterotex, Nutri Sperse, Hydro-Kote and Pureco. The range is produced in ISO-certified facilities in accordance with cGMP and IPEC guidelines. Their application areas vary from pharmaceutical, nutritional and cosmetic products, to the manufacturing of a wide choice of liquids, semi-solids, solids and powders.
